Ambassador of India

Ajit Gupte

I am delighted that Export Promotion Council for Handicrafts (EPCH) is organizing its Buyer-Seller Meet & Indian Exhibition of Home Decor, Lifestyle, Home Furnishing and Fashion Jewellery & Accessories products in Copenhagen, Denmark on 22 - 23 August 2019.

The 3rd edition of Buyer Seller Meet of Indian handicraft products in Denmark is commendable, as it reflects the efforts of EPCH to promote Indian handicrafts export sector, which employs a large number of artisans in rural and semi-rural areas of India. It nurtures centuries of rich tradition and skilled craftsmanship in creating beautifully designed products, made in a sustainable manner.

With premium product lines in houseware, home decor, textiles, jewellery & accessories and eco-friendly products to suit contemporary demands, manufacturers in India focus on freshness and new thinking. India's exports to the Scandinavian Region have seen a healthy and consistent growth with our manufacturers' & exporters' growing knowledge of market trends and consumer preferences.

I extend my compliments to all the participants, buyers and importers and wish the Buyer-Seller Meet a grand success.

Monika Kapil Mohta

I am pleased to know that the Export Promotion Council for Handicrafts (EPCH) is organizing the 3rd Edition of Buyer-Seller Meet and Exhibition of Indian Home Decor, Lifestyle, Home Furnishing and Fashion Jewellery & Accessories products in Stockholm from August 26 -27, 2019 to create and mark the presence of Indian handcrafted products in the Scandinavian market.

The efforts of EPCH to promote Indian handicraft exports sector that employs a number of artisans in rural and semi-rural areas of India and generates employment for MSMEs through its Buyer Seller Meet is particularly praiseworthy.

Indian handicraft products are known for their uniqueness of designs, creativity and craftsmanship. Visitors to the Buyer Seller Meet will have the opportunity to contact reliable suppliers from India and forge long-term business relations and source premium product lines in houseware, home decor, textiles, jewellery & accessories and sustainable and eco-friendly products.

I extend my best wishes to EPCH for a successful Buyer Seller Meet and hope buyers from Sweden will do good business.

Director General, EPCH

Export Promotion Council for Handicrafts (EPCH) is pleased to present the profiles of participants of the 3rd Buyer-Seller Meet & Indian Exhibition of Home & Lifestyle products at Copenhagen on 22–23 August 2019 and at Stockholm on 26-27 August 2019. Products would include items of Home Décor, Home Textiles & Furnishings, Home Accessories and Fashion Accessories. We cordially invite you to visit and explore sourcing and trade opportunities

You may be well aware, EPCH also organizes the renowned and world's largest handcraft exhibitors' show, IHGF Delhi Fair - Autumn & Spring editions held in Delhi NCR, India. This Buyer- Seller Meet is being organized owing to the success of the last meet in November 2018 wherein a large number of Buyers, Importers, Wholesalers and E-commerce companies had visited to source their requirements. Scandinavian buyers' pursuit for exclusive and genuine hand crafted products encourages us to bring in new Indian products and suppliers to your market.

We are grateful to the Ministry of Commerce, Govt. of India as well as of the Embassies of India in Sweden and Denmark, for the immense support in organizing the event.

We are hopeful, seeing this show's product display and meeting the manufacturers / suppliers will be advantageous for buyers' and open many new opportunities for both buyers and sellers.

Our best wishes to all!

(Ravinder Kumar Passi)
